ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Archaeology Channel Conference on Cultural Heritage Media, organized by Archaeological Legacy Institute, invites interested parties to gather for the discussion of audiovisual media for the study, preservation and promotion of cultural heritage. We wish to focus on topics of interest to cultural heritage professionals, media professionals and all those interested in applications of cultural heritage media.

Our goal is to create an unparalleled worldwide networking opportunity for cultural heritage filmmakers and others interested in the making and uses of cultural heritage media, including archaeologists, indigenous groups, musicians, artists, tourism operators, journalists, educators, historic preservation organizations, and others.

TAC Conference activities will include symposia, presentations, an exhibit hall, a banquet, and other events yet to be announced. TAC Conference is held in conjunction with the thirteenth annual edition of The Archaeology Channel International Film and Video Festival, a juried competition in the cultural heritage film genre.

All registered participants will receive complimentary Conference parking as well as tickets to TAC Festival film screenings that will take place May 12-15, 2016. The fee is required upon submittal of your registration.

Early Registration Deadline: March 31, 2016 ($100)

Late Registration begins April 1, 2016 ($130)

Conference dates: May 11-15, 2016
