

The Archaeology Channel Conference on Cultural Heritage Media

Eugene, Oregon, USA
14-16 May 2026

REGISTRATION FORM

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Archaeology Channel Conference on Cultural Heritage Media, organized by Archaeological Legacy Institute (ALI), invites interested parties to gather for discussion of audiovisual media in the study, preservation, and promotion of cultural heritage. We wish to focus on topics of interest to cultural heritage professionals, media professionals, and all of those interested in the applications of cultural heritage media.

Our goal is to create an unparalleled worldwide networking opportunity for cultural heritage filmmakers and others interested in the making and uses of cultural heritage media, including archaeologists, indigenous groups, musicians, artists, tourism operators, journalists, educators, historic preservation organizations, and others.

TAC Conference activities will include symposia, presentations and forums. TAC Conference will be held as part of the twenty-second annual edition of The Archaeology Channel International Film Festival, a juried competition in the cultural heritage film genre and a celebration of cultural heritage media.

All registered participants will receive complimentary Conference parking as well as tickets to TAC Festival film screenings that will take place May 14-17, 2026. The conference fee is required with your submittal of your registration form.

Registration Deadline: February 28, 2026 ($100)

Late Registration begins: April 1, 2026 ($130)

Conference dates: May 14-16, 2026
